

Writings on Civil Disobedience and Nonviolence

Author: Leo Tolstoy [1]

New Society Publishers, Philadelphia PA, 1987, pp. 426

Collection illustrating Tolstoy's Christian anarchist-pacifist perspective, stresses individual refusal to fight in wars. Omits 'Letter to a Hindu', which reflects on why millions of Indians submit to a small number of British rulers and which is available in Peter Mayer, ed., The Pacifist Conscience, Harmondsworth, Penguin, 1966, pp. 166-76. See also Leo Tolstoy, Government is Violence, Phoenix Press, 1990, which includes essays on anarchism and nonviolence.
