ICNC announced in March 2017 that translations of civil resistance materials, including articles, book chapters and facilitator tools, are now freely available in 55 languages. New materials will be added regularly. They are housed in ICNC's online Resources Library: icnc@nonviolent-conflict.org [21]

War Resisters International also announced in 2017 that it had created a new website 'Empowering Nonviolence' available at www.nonviolence.wri-irg.org [22]. The website provides free materials on nonviolent campaigning and direct action in an accessible form. Case studies and tactics can easily be discussed and new case studies submitted.
