Lamarca, Melissa Garcia, Sparks from the Spanish Crucible: Resisting evictions Spanish style [1], New Internationalist, no. April, 2013

On the Platform for Mortgage Affected People (PAH) set up in February 2009 to campaign about the hundreds of thousands of foreclosures and evictions of people unable to keep up mortgages on their homes, and often faced with a huge debt to the banks even after eviction. The group organized mass resistance to evictions, occupied foreclosed flats and houses to provide shelter for those made homeless, and to lobby Parliament to end evictions, promote affordable rents and changes to the mortgage law.
