Year of Publication: 1994

Dalton, Russell, The Green Rainbow: Environmental Groups in Western Europe [1], New Haven CT, Yale University Press, 1994, pp. 305

Examines development of Green movement in Western democracies. Argues that environmental interest groups are important new participants in the contemporary political process and that, if the movement is politically successful 'it may at least partially reshape the style and structure of democratic processes in these countries'.
