

---

Filter by language

You can filter the displayed publications by language

Year of Publication: 2019

Hunter, Daniel, The Climate Resistance Handbook - or, I was part of a climate action. Now what? [1], 350.org, 2019, pp. 66

Hunter, who is the global training manager of the international climate action group 350.org discusses the difference between a campaign based on a strategy with a target institution and specific goal, and continuous protest using a particular tactic. He sets out six stages for a potentially successful campaign, which may involve diverse tactics, and gives examples of effective campaigns from different countries. An edited extract from the book is: 'The difference between a campaign and endless action', Peace News, 2632-2633 (Aug-Sept 2019), p. 11.

See also: 'How to Build a Movement that Wins', Peace News, 2634-2635, Oct.-Nov. 2019, pp.8-9. which is an extract from the Handbook

Year of Publication: 2004

Hunter, Daniel ; Lakey, George, Opening Space for Democracy: Training Manual for Third-Party Nonviolent Intervention [2], Philadelphia PA, Training for Change, 2004, pp. 628

Much of this book can be downloaded from: <http://www.trainingforchange.org> [3].

Devised as a training resource for the Nonviolent Peace Force, this manual contains hundreds of training activities, with special emphasis on team-building and defending human rights. It includes over 60 handouts, an integrated 23 day curriculum, and many tips for trainers.

---

Source URL (retrieved on 01/05/2024 - 01:48):<https://civilresistance.info/author/2190>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2019/climate-resistance-handbook-or-i-was-part-climate-action-now-what>

[2] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2004/opening-space-democracy-training-manual-third-party-nonviolent-intervention> [3] <http://www.trainingforchange.org>