Filter by language: English
You can filter the displayed publications by language
English
French
German
Spanish

Year of Publication: 2018

HongFincher, Leta, Betraying Big Brother: The Feminist Awakening in China [1], London, Verso, 2018, pp. 240

Story of the 'Feminist Five' who were jailed in 2015 for a protest against sexual harassment, and the art and activism of their supporters. The book also examines the official gender equality policy of the Communist Party since 1949, and the recent suppression of dissidence and bans on foreign support for NGOs.

See also 'Talking policy: Leta Hong Fincher on feminism in China', World Policy, 2 June 2017: https://worldpolicy.org/2017/06/02/talking-policy-leta-hong-fincher-on-feminism-in-china/ [2]

Leta Hong discusses her book Leftover Women: The Resurgence of gender Inequality in China and the development of feminism in China from the post- socialist era up to today.

To read the first-hand account on the arrest of one activist of the 'Feminist Five' and other initiatives to free them, see this comprehensive article https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2017/mar/08/feminist-stickers-china-backash-women-activists [3]

See also https://www.scmp.com/news/china/society/article/2093973/fight-against-gender-violence-goes-chinas-feminist-five [4] and https://chinadigitaltimes.net/2018/02/people-week-feminist-five/ [5]

HongFincher, Leta, Betraying Big Brother: The Feminist Awakening in China [6], London and New York, Verso, 2018, pp. 248

Describing China's feminist activists in relation to their political and historical circumstances, the author elucidates the development of China's feminist movement and discusses China's history from a feminist perspective.

Year of Publication: 2014

HongFincher, Leta, Leftover Women: The Resurgence of Gender Inequality in China (Asian Arguments) [7], London and New York, ZedBooks, 2014, pp. 213

This book discusses the popular myth that women have fared well as a result of post-socialist China's economic reforms and breakneck growth. It lays out the structural discrimination against women in China and speaks of the broader problems within China's economy, politics, and development.

See also 'Talking policy: Leta Hong Fincher on feminism in China', World Policy, 2 June 2017, https://worldpolicy.org/2017/06/02/talking-policy-leta-hong-fincher-on-feminism-in-china/ [2] where Leta Hong discusses her book Leftover Women: The Resurgence of Gender Inequality in China [8] and the development of feminism in china from the post-socialist era up to these days.

Source URL (retrieved on 20/04/2024 - 00:13):https://civilresistance.info/author/2421

Links
[1] https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2018/betraying-big-brother-feminist-awakening-china [2] https://worldpolicy.org/2017/06/02/talking-policy-leta-hong-fincher-on-feminism-in-china/ [3] https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2017/mar/08/feminist-stickers-china-backash-women-activists [4] https://www.scmp.com/news/china/society/article/2093973/fight-against-gender-violence-goes-chinas-feminist-five [5] https://chinadigitaltimes.net/2018/02/people-week-feminist-five/ [6] https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2018/betraying-big-brother-feminist-awakening-china-0 [7] https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2014/leftover-women-resurgence-gender-inequality-china-asian-arguments [8] https://www.amazon.com/Leftover-Women-Resurgence-Inequality-Arguments/dp/1780329210