Ngaihte, Thianlalmuan, Democratizing the roles of women: Reading feminist voices [1], Asian Journal of Women's Studies, Vol. 24, no. 4, 2018, pp. 526-539

This article explores some feminist voices from India, especially one of a Dalit feminist, and two Northeastern feminists, and identifies certain views on common issues that bind them together. It also looks into the different priorities of each of these feminists, in order to understand the contexts, cultures and experiences that have shaped their primary concerns.
