Ting, Tin-yet, [From 'Be Water' to 'Be Fire': Nascent Smart Mob and Networked Protests in Hong Kong \[1\]](#), Social Movement Studies, Vol. 19, no. 3, 2020, pp. 362-368

Ting, from the Department of Applied Social Sciences at the Polytechnic University in Hong Kong, focuses on the use of social media and mobile technology that allowed 'largely ad hoc and networked forms of pop-up protest', both in the protests against the Extradition Bill and against police brutality and abuse of human rights. The article elaborates on how protest repertoires and movement goals have emerged.
