Bhutto, Benazir, Daughter of the East: An Autobiography [1], London, Mandarin, 1989, pp. 402

A memoir by Bhutto's daughter, who was a central figure in the campaign for democracy in the 1980s, which takes her story almost up to the November 1988 elections and her becoming Prime Minister. Although the focus is personal, includes material on the wider political context and the growing popular resistance.
