

The Pacifist Conscience

Editor: Peter Mayer [1]

Penguin, Harmondsworth, 1966, pp. 447

Collection of writings on war, pacifism and nonviolence from 500 BC to 1960 AD, but emphasis on more modern figures, such as William Lloyd Garrison, Thoreau, Tolstoy, Gandhi, Simone Weil and Albert Camus. Includes also Martin Buber's criticism of Gandhi for advocating nonviolent resistance by Jews to Hitler, and Reinhold Niebuhr's reasons for leaving the (pacifist) Fellowship of Reconciliation.
