

Teach-ins USA: Reports, Opinions, Documents

Author(s): Louis Menasche [1], Ronald Radosh [2]

Praeger, New York, 1967, pp. 349

Records how the Teach-In movement began modestly in a mid-West campus in 1965 but spread across the country, engaging many students and professors, and released a vast quantity of material about the Vietnam War. For first teach-in see: 'History of Education: Selected Moments of the 20th Century: 1965 First 'Teach-in' held at University of Michigan: New Tool for Further Education is Born':

<http://schugurensky.faculty.asu.edu/moments/1965teachin.html> [3]

Source URL (modified on 02/12/2016 - 15:08):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1967/teach-ins-usa-reports-opinions-documents>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1796> [2] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1797> [3] <http://schugurensky.faculty.asu.edu/moments/1965teachin.html>