

Grunwick: The Workers' Story

Author: Jack Dromey [1]

Lawrence and Wishart, London, 1978, pp. 207

The author was secretary of Brent Trades Council in London when the non-unionised women strikers at the mail-order plant contacted him for help in 1976, and became a member of the strike committee. He also wrote an obituary of the inspirational leader of the strike, Jayaben Desia, when she died 23 December 2010 (Guardian, 29 Dec 2010 [2], p.30). (For a celebration of Desia's role and life see also Yasmin Alibhai-Brown, 'Remembering an unsung heroine of our modern history' [3], Independent, 3 Jan 2011, p.5.)
