

Pioneers for Peace: Women's International League for Peace and Freedom 1915-1965

Author(s): Gertrude Bussey [1], Margaret Tims [2]

WILPF British Section, London, 1980, pp. 225

History of first 50 years of transnational body campaigning against war and for disarmament, which opposed NATO and nuclear weapons, was active (especially in the US) in resisting the Vietnam War and promotes social justice and reconciliation.

Source URL (modified on 14/11/2016 - 15:44): <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1980/pioneers-peace-womens-international-league-peace-and-freedom-1915-1965>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1637>

[2] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1638>