

From the ashes: The rebirth of the Philippine revolution – a review essay

Author: Walden Bello [1]

In: Third World Quarterly, Vol 8, No 1 (January), 1986, pp. 258-276

Leftist academic discusses sympathetically the role of the left and armed revolution in the countryside, but also explores the 'legal, semi-legal and clandestine mass struggles in the cities'. Notes the creation by 1975 of a militant workers' movement and the 1975 year-long wave of over 400 strikes, as well as networks among Catholics, professionals and students.
