

Building the Green Movement

Author: Rudolf Bahro [1]

New Society Publishers, Philadelphia PA, 1986, pp. 219

Collection of writings (from Nov. 1982 to June 1985) by former East German dissident and radical ecologist. Covers issue such as North-South relations, the peace movement and the crucial role of communes in rebuilding an ecologically sound society. Includes his statement on resigning from the German Greens, claiming that they 'have identified themselves -critically- with the industrial system and its administration'.
