

Back from the Brink: The Creation of a Nuclear Free New Zealand

Author: Kevin P. Clements [1]

Harper Collins, Wellington NZ and New York, 1988, pp. 241

Account of significant popular movement in 1970s and 1980s (including local councils declaring themselves nuclear-free) that led to government action to turn New Zealand into a nuclear-free zone and to refuse to allow US warships carrying nuclear weapons to dock in its ports (although it did not remove US monitoring bases).

Source URL (modified on 24/11/2016 -

14:40):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1988/back-brink-creation-nuclear-free-new-zealand>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1720>