

Fascism and Resistance in Portugal: Communists, Liberals and Military Dissidents in the Opposition to Salazar, 1941-1974

Author: David L. Raby [1]

Manchester University Press, Manchester, 1988, pp. 288

Analyses various stages of resistance, the role of the Communist Party throughout, of 'military populism' in the 1950s, of socialists and dissenting Catholics in the 1960s, and the impact of the colonial wars.
