

Peace People – A History of Peace Activity in New Zealand

Author: Elise Locke [1]

Hazard Press, Christchurch and Melbourne, 1992, pp. 335

Chronicles peace activities in New Zealand from Maori time and early colonial settlement to the anti-Vietnam war movement and anti-nuclear campaigns of the 1960s and 1970s. Includes accounts of the direct action protests against French nuclear tests in 1972.

Source URL (modified on 14/11/2016 -

16:09):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1992/peace-people-history-peace-activity-new-zealand>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1644>