

Walking with the Wind: A Memoir of the Movement

with Michael D'Orsa

Author(s): John Lewis [1], Michael D'Orsa [2]

Simon and Schuster, New York, 1998, pp. 496

Lewis, who was born in Alabama, played a major role in the Freedom Rides and sit-ins, in the 1963 March on Washington and in the March on Selma that led to the Voting Rights Act. He also helped to found the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Source URL (modified on 27/07/2020 - 19:14):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1998/walking-wind-memoir-movement>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/176> [2] <https://civilresistance.info/author/177>