

Arms Fairs: A great time to show opposition to the death trade

Author: Tikiri [1]

In: Peace News, No 2446, 2002

Report by French activist on plans to protest at the biannual Eurosatory arms exhibition in Paris 17-20 June, along similar lines to earlier protests in 1998 and 2000. Plans included a 'witness bearing peace vigil' and more noisy and colourful protests by Collectif Fermons Eurosatory, including nonviolent direct action. British arms trade activists had promised to join in, as they had since 1998. Britain and France, the two main arms exporters in Europe, each hosted regular trade fairs.

See also: Poulden, David, 'Paris Arms Fair: 50 arrests', Peace News, 2632-3633, Aug.-Sept. 2019, p. 7.

Brief report on die-ins and other nonviolent direct action at Le Bourget airport by the Collectif des Desobeissants to highlight French arms used in the Yemen war.

Available online at:

<https://www.peacenews.info/node/5564/arm-fairs-great-time-show-opposition-death-trade> [2]

Source URL (modified on 06/07/2020 -

15:19):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2002/arms-fairs-great-time-show-opposition-death-trade>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/3143> [2] <https://www.peacenews.info/node/5564/arm-fairs-great-time-show-opposition-death-trade>