

One No, Many Yeses: A Journey to the Heart of the Global Resistance Movement

Author: Paul Kingsnorth [1]

Free Press, London, 2003, pp. 355

Wide ranging exploration of campaigns in all parts of the world seen at first hand. Includes coverage of Sem Terra in Brazil, Cochabamba in Bolivia, township resistance to privatization in South Africa, the Zapatistas, opposition to mining in West Papua, and campaigning groups in the USA. See also his: , Protest still matters [2] New Statesman, 08/05/2006 , 8 May, 2006, discussing why the Global Justice Movement has dropped out of the news, the turn away from street demonstrations to social forums, and stressing that struggles still continue, especially in the Global South.

Source URL (modified on 24/10/2016 - 14:56): <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2003/one-no-many-yeses-journey-heart-global-resistance-movement>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/1359>

[2] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2006/protest-still-matters>