

Anger in Repressive Regimes: A Footnote to Domination and the Arts of Resistance by James Scott

Author: Helena Flam [1]

In: European Journal of Social Theory, Vol 7, No 2, 2004, pp. 171-188

Argues against Scott's thesis that long suppressed anger will one day explode, and suggests instead (drawing on Central European examples after 1980) that protest took indirect, satirical and carnivalesque forms.
