

Common Ground: The Story Of Greenham

Author: David Fairhall [1]

I.B. Tauris , London, 2006, pp. 224

Story of the march to Greenham Common in August 1981 by a small group of women, 'Women for Life on Earth', to demand a public debate on nuclear weapons, in order to keep the nuclear issue under scrutiny, and how it led to the prolonged and renowned women-only camp and blockades at the Greenham Cruise Missile Base in the UK.

See also <https://www.theguardian.com/uk/2007/may/03/greenham.yourgreenham3> [2]

Source URL (modified on 05/06/2020 -

16:58):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2006/common-ground-story-greenham>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/3034> [2]

<https://www.theguardian.com/uk/2007/may/03/greenham.yourgreenham3>