

Sebastian Acevedo Movement Against Torture: A Project for the Dignity of Life

Author: Rosa Parissi [1]

In: Tyndale, Wendy R., Visions of Development: Faith-based Initiatives [2] Farnham, Ashgate, , 2006, pp. 137-144

References to the Sebastian Acevedo Movement also occur in Agger, Inger ; Jensen, Søren Buus, Trauma and Healing Under State Terrorism [3] London, Zed Books, , 1996, pp. 246 , who see it as 'an expression both of psychological counter-strategies at the private and political level and of healing strategies at the societal level' (p. 184) but do not describe its methodology. Lloyd, Vincent W., The Problem with Grace: Reconfiguring Political Theology [4] Stanford CA, Stanford University Press, , 2011, pp. 256 , pp. 109-11, discusses its liturgical aspects in comparison with contemporary Critical Mass bicycle rides.

Source URL (modified on 23/08/2016 - 15:57):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2006/sebastian-acevedo-movement-against-torture-project-dignity-life>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/971> [2] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2006/visions-development-faith-based-initiatives> [3] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/1996/trauma-and-healing-under-state-terrorism> [4] <https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2011/problem-grace-reconfiguring-political-theology>