

Ukraine Diaries: Dispatches From Kiev

Author: Andrey Kurkov [1]

Harvill Secker, London, 2014, pp. 272

Account by an enthusiastic Russian Ukrainian novelist, best known for his surreal Deat of a Penguin, who was a sympathetic observer of protests, and stresses popular anger at the systematic corruption of Yanukovych regime and the spontaneous self-organising nature of the Euromaidan movement.

Source URL (modified on 03/11/2017 -

18:42):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2014/ukraine-diaries-dispatches-kiev>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/2283>