

Cultural Memories of nonviolent Struggles: Powerful Times

Author(s): Anna Reading [1], Tamar Katriel [2]

Palgrave Macmillan, Basingstoke, 2015, pp. 260

This is an academic contribution to memory studies, but shows how preserving knowledge and stories of past movements affects present politics, and how nonviolent activists can learn from past campaigns. Examples examined include the suffragettes, Greenham Common, Polish Solidarity, US struggles against racism and Australian aboriginal campaigns. The authors also illustrate how one movement can influence others and stress the need to make archival and other sources (films, music, etc.) available.
