

Social Movements in Times of Austerity: Bringing Capitalism Back into Protest Analysis

Author: Donatella Della Porta [1]

Polity and Wiley, Cambridge, 2015, pp. 216

Analyzes movements since 2008 (Iceland) challenging corruption and inequality and situating them within the crisis of neoliberalism. Covers Spain, Greece and Portugal anti-austerity movements, but also Peru, Brazil, Russia, Bulgaria, Turkey and Ukraine.
