

Commemoration in Havana of 40 years of advancement of women's equality and rights with a focus on pending challenges

Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean – ECLAC2017

Joint initiative between the government of Cuba, ECLAC and the Federation of Cuban Women that saw government authorities, international officials and representatives of civil society in Havana assess the existing policies in favour of gender equality and women's rights that have been implemented over the past 40 years in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean. They also debated the main challenges that lie ahead.

Available online at:

<https://www.cepal.org/en/pressreleases/commemoration-havana-40-years-advancement-womens-equality-and-rights-region-focus> [1]

Source URL (modified on 19/05/2020 -

13:26):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2017/commemoration-havana-40-years-advancement-womens-equality-and-rights-focus-pending>

Links

[1] <https://www.cepal.org/en/pressreleases/commemoration-havana-40-years-advancement-womens-equality-and-rights-region-focus>