

Reviving the nuclear disarmament movement: a practical proposal

Author: Laurence Wittner [1]

In: Foreign Policy in Focus, 2017

Advocates that nuclear disarmament movements develop a strategy to rouse the public from its torpor and shift the agenda of the nuclear powers from nuclear confrontation to a nuclear weapons-free world. He recalls the example set by the Nuclear Weapons Freeze Campaign and proposes ways to implement effective strategies today.

Available online at:

<https://fpif.org/reviving-the-nuclear-disarmament-movement-a-practical-proposal/> [2]

Source URL (modified on 11/06/2020 - 18:43):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2017/reviving-nuclear-disarmament-movement-practical-proposal>

Links

[1] <https://civilresistance.info/author/3103> [2] <https://fpif.org/reviving-the-nuclear-disarmament-movement-a-practical-proposal/>