

Abortion Across Borders: Transnational Travel and Access to Abortion Services

Editor(s): Christabelle Sethna [1], Gayle Davis [2]

Johns Hopkins University Press, Baltimore, 2019, pp. 360

The authors examine how restrictive policies force women to travel both within and across national borders in order to reach abortion providers, often at great expense, over long distances and with significant safety risks. Contributors, who adopt both historical and contemporary perspectives, examine the situation culturally and politically diverse in regions that include Australia, Canada, Eastern Europe, Ireland, New Zealand, Poland, Prince Edward Island, Spain, Sweden, Texas, and post-Brexit referendum UK.
