

Murdered women can't celebrate International Women's Day

In: Foreign Policy, 2019

Looks at the expansion of political and legal rights on gender-related issues in Latin America. The article also discusses the overall progress of women in education; their role in the labour market; and women's access to health-care and social security. Emphasises the predominance of gender-based violence and lack of reproductive rights in the region.

Available online at:

<https://foreignpolicy.com/2019/03/07/murdered-women-cant-celebrate-international-womens-day/> [1]

Source URL (modified on 14/05/2020 -

14:13):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2019/murdered-women-cant-celebrate-international-womens-day>

Links

[1] <https://foreignpolicy.com/2019/03/07/murdered-women-cant-celebrate-international-womens-day/>