

---

Nigerian women protest against Abuja police raid and rape

In: African Feminism, 2019

Narrates the background of the #AbujaPoliceraidOnWomen campaign, in response to the violent arrest of 70 women in two clubs on the accusation of prostitution. The police allegedly raped those women who couldn't afford the bail.

See also the interview on this campaign with Oluwaseun Ayodeji Osowobi, founder of the Stand To End Rape (STER) initiative <http://africanfeminism.com/police-brutality-against-nigerian-women-an-interview-with-oluwaseun-ayodeji-osowobi/> [1] and <http://africanfeminism.com/protests-arent-tea-parties-dont-expect-women-to-be-civil/> [2]

Available online at:

<http://africanfeminism.com/nigerian-women-protest-against-abuja-police-raid-and-rape/> [3]

---

Source URL (modified on 04/05/2020 -

15:00):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2019/nigerian-women-protest-against-abuja-police-raid-and-rape-0>

Links

[1] <http://africanfeminism.com/police-brutality-against-nigerian-women-an-interview-with-oluwaseun-ayodeji-osowobi/> [2] <http://africanfeminism.com/protests-arent-tea-parties-dont-expect-women-to-be-civil/> [3] <http://africanfeminism.com/nigerian-women-protest-against-abuja-police-raid-and-rape/>