

Our territory, our body, our sprit: indigenous women unite in historic march in Brazil

In: Amazon Frontlines, 2019

As part of the indigenous movement across the Amazon, thousands of indigenous women demonstrated in Brazil's capital city in August 2019, joining the first Indigenous Women's March. Carrying banners with the slogan "Territory: our body, our spirit", women took to the streets to make their voices heard and to denounce the policies of Brazil's far-right president Jair Bolsonaro, which have set the stage for escalating violations of indigenous rights, racism, violence and the most alarming Amazon deforestation rates in recent memory.

Available online at:

<http://www.amazonfrontlines.org/chronicles/indigenous-women-march-brazil/> [1]

Source URL (modified on 14/04/2020 - 18:10):<https://civilresistance.info/biblio-item/2019/our-territory-our-body-our-sprit-indigenous-women-unite-historic-march-brazil>

Links

[1] <http://www.amazonfrontlines.org/chronicles/indigenous-women-march-brazil/>