

The *Black Lives Matter Movement in Brazil and the Organizations at the Forefront

Author(s): Sofia Munoz [1], Marian Hernandez Pinto [2]

In: Latina Republic, 2020

The authors provide a detailed account of the developing protests after Joao Pedro Matos Pinto, a fourteen year-old Black teenager, was shot 72 times by a police officer whilst playing in his cousin's backyard. The article also examines the organizational initiatives that support victims of state violence.
