

Misogyny And Media In The Age Of Trump

Editor: Maria Marron [1]

Lexington Books, London, 2020, pp. 406

This book explores misogyny across the media, from political and editorial cartoons to news and sport. It also covers film, television, social media (especially Twitter), and journalistic organizations that address gender inequities. The authors argue that the conservative populism ushered in by President Donald Trump and the Republicans create the social-cultural and political environment that have prompted the #MeToo Movement and Fourth Wave Feminism in the US as a response. They argue, therefore, that the 'social contract' should be reinterpreted to create a just, gender- and race-equitable society.
