

Jørgen Johansen:

Is a Scandinavian scholar, activist, journalist and nonviolent trainer.

Since 1970 I have been active in several social movements with focus on peace, nonviolence, ecology, and solidarity. From local groups in south-east Norway I have the last 20 years mainly worked internationally. In the 1990s I was chair of War Resisters' International (www.wri-irg.org) and have been active in Transcend (www.transcend.org); Transnational Foundation for Peace and Future research (www.transnational.org) in addition to lecturing at universities on all continents and doing nonviolent training in more than fifty countries.

Publications (books):

Bombemålet Norge, Atomstrategi, Ytringsfrihet og Razzia, Oslo 1984 (Editor) ("Norway the Bombtarget, Nuclear Strategy, Freedom of Speech and Police Raid" in Norwegian)

Aldri Mer 9.April, Sivilmotstand i Halden Kommune, Oslo 1987 ("Never More April 9." in Norwegian)

Socialt Försvar - en ickevåldsrevolution, Morjärv 1990 ("Social Defence – A nonviolent Revolution" in Swedish)

Den Nødvendige Ulydigheten (with Åsne Berre Persen) 1998 ("The Necessary Disobedience" in Norwegian)

Sosialt Forsvar, ikkevoldskamp mot vår tids trusler. 2000 ("Social Defence, Nonviolent Struggle Against the Threats of Our Time" in Norwegian)

Publications (chapters in books)

Militären jagar terrorismens skugga [The Military hunting the shadow of terrorism] in Laglöst Land by Flyghed and Hörnqvist, Ordfront 2003

La complejidad de los conflictos y las opciones noviolentas in Acción Política No-violenta, una opción para Colombia, Bogota, Colombia 2005

Rebelen från Nazaret [The Rebel from Nazareth] in Jesús och Ickevåld by Engell-Nielsen, Kristna Fredsrörelsen 2006

Peace Research Needs to re-orient in Peace Studies in the Chinese Century ed by A Hunter, Ashgate 2006

E-mail: johansen.jorgen@gmail.com